

House Resolution No. 142

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Chase M. Johnson of Troop 81 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on January 27, 2008, at Macon United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Chase through the billets of Assistant Patrol Leader, Troop Guide, and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Chase earned him induction into the Order of the Arrow and twenty-three merit badges that are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Chase applied the knowledge that he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including summer camp, a Klondike Derby, and a 2007 camping trip to Colorado; and

Whereas, Chase completed an Eagle Project that consisted of working with the Macon County Historical Society to prepare the Blees Annex for office space for the county museum, to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career, and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait that justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Chase Johnson during his three-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Chase M. Johnson, son of Michael and Vanessa Johnson of Macon, Missouri.
